Asp.Net Debugging Assignments Lab Book

Table of Contents

Lab1:

1. Open the Demo Asp.Net Web Application, and open the JavascriptAndPostBackTest.aspx asp.net page.

   Expected Output:

   a. When user clicks html welcome button, text messages should be shown in the textboxes.
   b. When user checks/unchecks checkbox the back color of textbox and button should immediately change.
   c. When user clicks "Show Selection" button, the current option selected in drop down should be displayed in the textbox.

Lab 2:

2.1 Open DepartmentWiseEmployees.aspx page

Expected Output:
   a. When user selects Department from a radio button, the employees of that department should be shown in the Grid View Control placed below.
   b. Only 3 employees should be shown at a time. ie: Use Paging Concept.
   c. When user clicks delete button the employee details should be deleted.
   d. Currently user can edit employee details using edit button. Write code to update the changes to the database.
   e.

2.2 Open EmpDetails.aspx page

Expected Output:
   a. The page should show the total salary (Summation of Salary Column) at top of the Grid View control. Currently the page is showing wrong summation result.
   b. Currently user can edit employee details using edit button. Write code to update the changes to the database, also validate that salary should be proper number and 25000 or above.

Lab 3:

3.1 Open CreateCookie.aspx page

Expected Output:

   a. User should enter any user id, but password should be "billgates". Once the password is correct the page should store user id in a cookie and take user to ShowCookie.aspx.
   b. User should not be able to go to ShowCookie.aspx page directly. User should be able to go to the page only via CreateCookie.aspx.